

Dear FCC:

I do not believe government regulation and interference into new programming for XM radio OR any satellite radio station system is appropriate. It's preposterous that the federal government would feel the need to regulate this medium. Doesn't the government have it's hands full yet??

John C Schuepbach
105 Humble Ave.
San Antonio, TX 78225